

God's special book

FOCUS

1. God speaks to us in the Bible, which is the Church's book.
2. In the Bible God teaches us about his love for us.

During lesson time your child:

- identified the Bible as God's special book;
- retold their favourite Bible stories;
- listened and responded to selected Bible stories;
- demonstrated care in handling the Bible.

Psalm 119:105

Now your word is a lamp to my feet, a light to my path.

SUGGESTED HOME ACTIVITIES

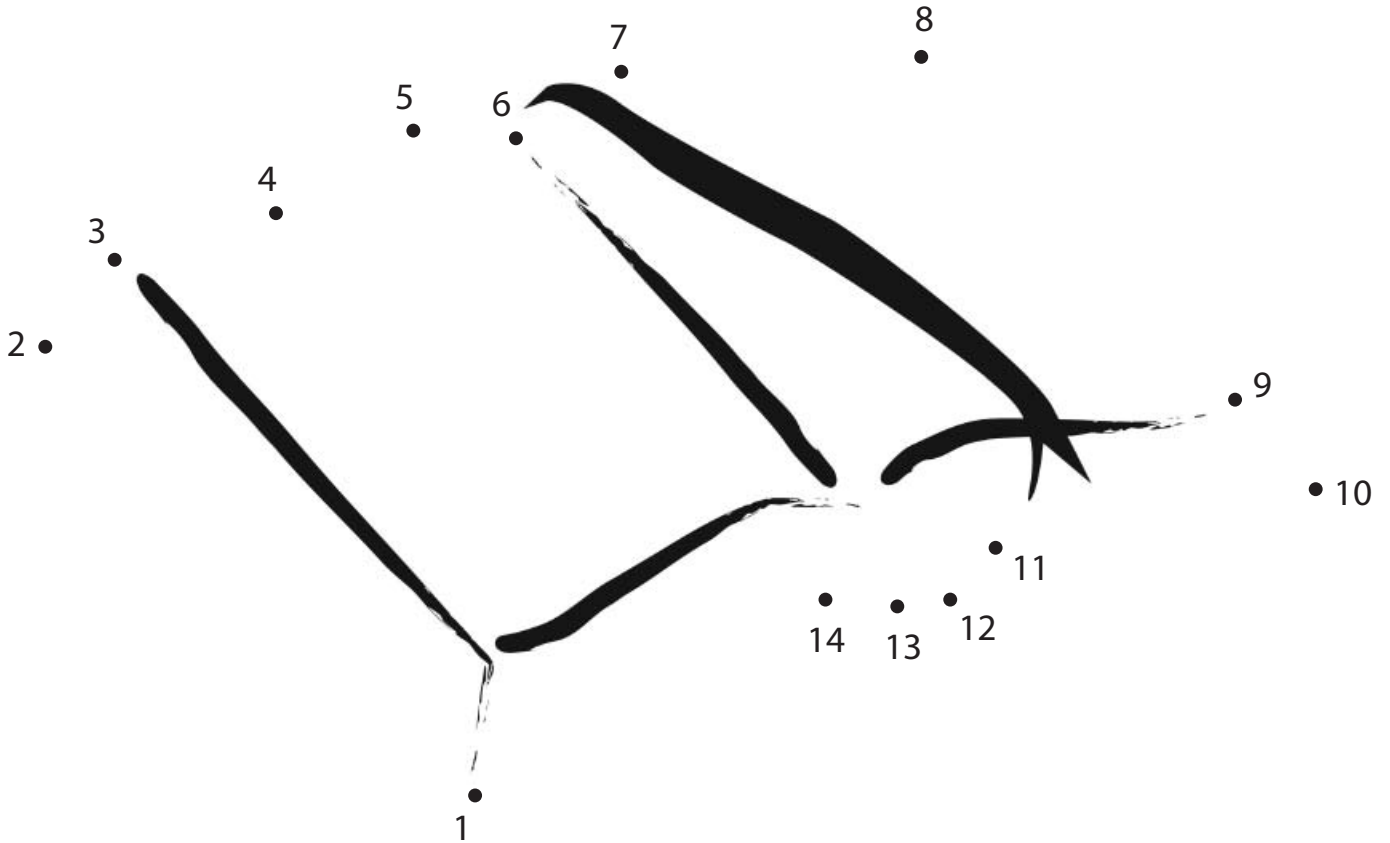

These are some suggested activities to do at home with your child.

1. Read and discuss the Scripture passage with your child. Explore your child's understanding of the passage by asking him or her 'I wonder' questions; e.g. I wonder . . . why God wants us to listen to his stories?
e.g. I wonder . . . why we say the Bible is a lamp to my feet?
2. Buy your child a children's Bible or a book of children's Bible stories. Read the book with your child, talking to him or her about the various stories. Encourage your child to read the Bible stories to you.
3. Engage your child with various Bible stories by providing him or her with colouring-in, jigsaws or art and craft materials.

To Remember:

The Bible is God's special book.

Join the dots and find out about one way we can learn about God.

What is in the picture?

Dear God,
thank you for your very special book - the Bible.
Thank you for its stories which teach us many things.
Amen.
