I hope you have now completed your teaching for 2012 and look forward to your holiday break!

Gratia Series Sacramental Programs Launch. The launch of the new sacramental programs at Dooleys, Lidcombe, on Friday 26 October proved to be a great success. Eighty people were in attendance to hear Bishop Julian Porteous deliver a presentation outlining in detail the contents of the new sacramental books. Large numbers of new books were purchased by catechists, including resources recommended for use by the programs. Catechists interested in purchasing bulk numbers of the new books for 2013 can contact the CCD on 9390 5130.

COLAL SMART Board Lessons. Great news! The new electronic SMART Board K-6 Lessons for Terms 1-4 are now complete and are available for immediate collection and use. Thanks to the Wollongong CCD team for their determined effort to finish this project well ahead of schedule. To obtain a USB drive with Terms 1 to 4 please contact CCD on 9390 5122. It is envisioned for 2013 to update this same material to include music.

New High Schools. Catechists are now teaching in 36 public secondary schools in the Archdiocese of Sydney. This figure is up from 22 in 2008. Currently, it looks hopeful that this figure will rise to at least 39 schools in 2013. CCD Sydney needs your help to identify potential new secondary schools, as well as catechists who wish to teach in them. If you can help, please contact me on 9390 5127. Training is available for those who wish to teach in secondary schools.

High School Catechist Project. This High School Catechist Project continues to go from strength to strength. Starting with only four pilot schools in 2009, 17 Catholic schools participated in 2012, with 22 on board for 2013. This translates to 250-300 additional young people assisting with the presentation of SRE every week, augmenting our overall volunteer numbers by nearly 13%. It is still hoped that one day all Catholic secondary schools in the Archdiocese will be on board.

ACU Community Engagement Project. This project also has the potential to be another great source of young adults teaching SRE in the immediate future. 2013 will see the launch of the four-parish pilot, with full implementation hoped for in 2014.

May all catechists enjoy a blessed and joyful Christmas season. God bless. Robert Haddad

EASTERN

Robert Milan

The final term of the year brings with it excitement, a sense of rush hour and a joyous occasion! Yes, Christmas is almost here marking the end of an exciting year with the release of the new Sacramental Program, the celebration of our longest servicing catechist, Maureen Power, and the hosting of the Annual Catechist Mass by the Eastern Area catechists, which was very successful thanks to the 34 volunteers from the Eastern Area. The Eastern Area continued to see some growth in new catechists throughout 2012. I remain available to offer my services to parishes with recruitment drives in 2013.

Thank you to all for continuing to place importance on the catechetical apostolate. As we celebrate 50 years since the opening of Vatican Council II, we can see the lay witness thriving in the state schools across the Archdiocese of Sydney with adult catechist numbers approaching on 2000. As Pope Benedict XVI says for the Year of Faith, "The 'door of faith' is opened at one's baptism, but during this year, Catholics are called to open it again, walk through it and rediscover and renew their relationship with Christ and his Church."

2012 saw the involvement of St Scholastica's High School in the High School Catechist Program. St Clare's College Waverley continues to provide additional students with the number increasing to 25 for 2013. St Mary's Cathedral College has also maintained its service as well.

2013 Diary Dates:

- Mon 4 Feb, Eastern Area Coordinator Meeting, Polding Centre, 10-12noon
- Fri 17 May, Eastern Area Mass, St Joseph's Rosebery, 11-2pm

I wish you all a peaceful, joyous and relaxing Christmas and a blessed 2013!

May the Christmas star that guided the Three Wise Men to the stable at Bethlehem be your guiding light to finding the infant Jesus in the hearts of your loved ones.

SOUTHERN

Denise Humphreys

Congratulations to Maureen Sullivan from Kogarah who is our new life member from the Southern Area.

By the time you read this newsletter you may have taught your final SRE class for 2012. I hope you have an enjoyable break over Christmas and come back to this ministry refreshed in the New Year. Looking back over the last 12 months these are some of the things for which I am most grateful:

- The very efficient way Carlton parish organised the Area Mass.
- The 200 plus entries from our area for the Archdiocesan Art Competition. Art works from our students at Heathcote Public School, Lilli Pilli Public School, Hurstville South Public School, Ramsgate Public School, Carlton Public School, Bexley North Public School and Sylvania Heights Public School have been selected for exhibition in the Crypt of St Mary's Cathedral.
- The Yr 11 students from St Patrick's College who taught SRE to a class of twenty Year 3 students at Gynea Bay. These students then helped mentor the next group of Yr 10 students who took over this ministry in Term 4.
- The catechists who stepped forward to take high school classes. We still need more people for this ministry.
- Last but by no means least all the catechists who teach each week.

Congratulations to all those who participated in the various levels of accreditation this year – the Basic One/Two, Intermediate, and Advanced and Catechist Ministry Certificate courses. Next year the Basic One course will be offered in Miranda CCD Centre and as many local parish groups as possible. SMART Board courses will be run again in 2013. Please contact me if you would like to run one at your parish.

Once again I would like to thank you for all the prayers and support you have given me during the year. I hope you all have a happy and holy Christmas.

CENTRAL

Sarah Christie

Greetings to all in the Central Area!

As we wind down on the Term 4, I would like to express my gratitude to you all for once again being the inspiring men and women I am blessed to work with every week. Thank you all for your marvellous efforts, devotion and heart in teaching SRE, preparing lessons and joining in our CCD gatherings.

This term has been busy by Term 4 standards. I am thrilled to have acquired new high school catechists with De La Salle Bankstown, and a new SRE High School at Kingsgrove. The Vocations Centre arranged for priests and nuns to speak to the students at two of my high schools in Bass Hill and Kingsgrove North. This left the students more aware and deeply moved by the vocations we are called to in our lives.

This term, Denise Humphreys of the Southern Area hosted a craft day at the Miranda office which left me speechless. Using the most basic materials purchased at dollar stores, she was able to create the most amazing resources to aid (and add some sparkle to) Scripture lessons, particularly around Christmas and Easter. I was so impressed with the projects she shared that I plan on holding one (after some practice) at the new Bankstown office in Term 2 next year.

I would also like to acknowledge the new Life Members from the Central Area namely Beryl Dinos and Angela Mangini of Greenacre and Barbara Joan Sherry of Revesby Heights. Congratulations on your 30 years of excellent service.

To the rest of you: I am blessed to work with you as you give your time to the students in our public schools.

May the humility, peace and honest love of the Holy Family gathered in a stable in Bethlehem be with you and your own families this Christmas, and may you all have a prosperous and joyous new year. I'll see you at CCD Bankstown in 2013!

God Bless,

Sarah

WESTERN

Teresa Culjak

Greetings to all in the Western Area!

"Well done, good and faithful servant." Matthew 25:21

"And in the desert people of faith are needed who, with their own lives, point out the way to the Promised Land and keep hope alive." Pope Benedict XVI

Thank you for being a witness to this new life.

With SRE now completed for the year 2012, a big thank you for helping to spread the Gospel to all the Catholic children in our state schools. You have prayed with the children, listened to the children, catechised the children but most of all you have been a witness of Jesus to the children. Their lives have been touched through you and your generosity.

The 11th of October 2012 marked the opening of the Year of Faith. During the next year, the CCD will provide opportunities for you to discover anew and deepen your faith with retreats, courses and Lunch and Learns. Please keep a look out for these in your next Newsletter and CCD emails so you don't miss out.

The work of our Catechetical Ministry is very important to the life of the Church. For some, your lives may be the only Gospel your students may ever read. Our parishes need more workers in the vineyard to assist as catechists and helpers in the classroom. I encourage you to take the motto of Pope John Paul II, "Be Not afraid" step out into the deep and invite during these school holidays family and friends to join us in this wonderful ministry.

I wish you all a blessed and holy Christmas and look forward to seeing you all in 2013.

"And in the desert people of faith are needed who, with their own lives, point out the way to the Promised Land and keep hope alive." Pope Benedict XVI.

Thank you for being a witness to this new life.

NORTHERN

Chris Cox

Thank you for all your hard work and dedication this year. You all deserve a well earned break over Christmas. Please take the time before the year ends to reflect back on your lessons. Reflection will help you grow in confidence and will also save you time as you plan the future.

CCD has recently completed and launched a new edition of the Sacramental Program for parishes. The project commenced in April 2010 and was undertaken in response to the Pastoral Plan for the Archdiocese which proposed that a catechetical curriculum for sacramental preparation be developed. It was appropriate that this program was launched at the start of the Year of Faith called for by Pope Benedict. The Northern Area had the biggest show of attendance at the Sacramental launch thank you for everyone that came to support this event.

The boys from St Joseph's College Hunters Hill were asked to create an assignment that consisted of promoting the awareness of the Sacraments of Initiation in states schools and parishes. The Joeys boys constructed electronic resources and presented these for CCD use. The variety of software used to create these resources were well beyond their years as they created video presentations, rap music, designed web pages and even an application to use on iPads and iPhones. CCD will review and plan the requirements to enable catechist and parish access to these engaging resources. CCD has not decided the final method of delivery at this time.

Congratulations to all Northern Area catechists who received awards at the Annual Catechist Mass, especially the ever growing number of student catechists who were present at the Mass.

I will continue to train new students in 2013 and am constantly seeking new opportunities for more Catholic schools in the area to come on board the program.

Christmas Art Competition Results By Denise Humphreys

This year there were over 200 entries from Yr 5 and Yr 6 students in 32 public schools. The Christmas Story was depicted in paint, oil, crayon, pencil and collage. The entries were judged on artistic merit, use of medium and on the artist's written reflection. Size of the artwork did not matter but the reflection did. A well executed and completed art work on A3 cartridge paper was considered to have more artistic merit than a much larger, incomplete artwork or an artwork without a reflection.

Congratulations to the successful artists who have their artwork on display in the Crypt of St Mary's Cathedral from 2 December to 6 January. Catechists are encouraged to go and view this exhibition in the City during Advent and Christmas.

The Launch of the New Gratia Series Sacramental Books

By Robert Haddad

After two and a half years of planning, writing, trialling and revision, the new Gratia Series sacramental programs were formally launched at Dooleys, Lidcombe, by Bishop Julian Porteous, on Friday 26 October. About 80 guests and catechists were present to celebrate this occasion and to acknowledge those who gave their time and effort to ensure the new program's successful completion.

Gratia Series replaces the previous Joy for Living and Harper Collins Sacramental Programs sold by Sydney CCD over the past 30 years. Planning begun in May 2010 under the direction of Bishop Julian. The aim of Gratia Series was to produce updated programs with more substantial doctrinal content, more engaging children's activities, improved graphics and mechanisms to engage and inform parents. This was to prove a substantial task, with Denise Humphreys (FEO Southern) as chief writer, CCD Director Robert Haddad as general editor, and the sacramental committee providing exacting scrutiny and critique.

Gratia Series encompasses formation of children in the sacraments of Reconciliation, First Holy Communion and Confirmation. There are Leader's Manuals and Children's Activity Books for each sacrament. There is also a Parish Handbook. In the future it is envisaged to also produce accompanying graphic and electronic resources.

At $4.95 per book, Gratia Series represents a 50% price discount on previous sacramental programs sold by CCD Sydney and currently sold elsewhere. It is hoped that Gratia Series will become a valuable instrument in the provision of sacramental formation to many thousands of children in the Archdiocese of Sydney and other dioceses in the years to come.

To order your sample copies of Gratia Series or bulk orders please contact Eleanor Emerson of Catholic Books and Resources on 9390 5130.

Bishop Julian Porteous and Robert Haddad with the Sacramental Preparation Advisory Committee members Kim Mannix, Carolyn Spratt, Toni Whitfield, Denise Humphreys, Cathy Young. Adviser Deborah Mulcahy sent her apology.

Farewell Message

Dear Catechists,

Just before this newsletter went to print I received the news of my appointment as the Head of New Evangelisation for the Catholic Education Office, Sydney, commencing January 29, 2013. As a consequence, I will be resigning as Director of Sydney CCD, effective January 25.

First of all, I wish to say that my four years with Sydney CCD has been an absolute delight. The staff of CCD are a fabulous team, and together we have been able to produce exceptional growth in all key indicators.

The highlights by way of team achievements since late 2008 include:

- The increase in adult catechist numbers from 1694 to 1950.
- The implementation of the High School Catechist project with 22 participating schools.
- The new K-6 and 7-12 curricula.
- The new Gratia Series sacramental programmes.
- Converting the K-6 Activity Books into SMART Board format.
- Increasing the number of secondary schools with Catholic scripture from 22 to 40.

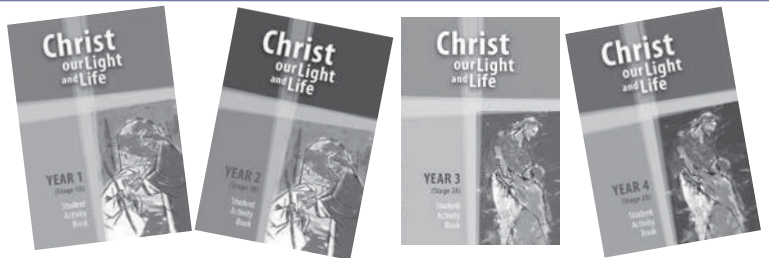

I wish to also acknowledge my fellow Directors of CCDs in other dioceses and thank you for many years of support and collaboration, as well as Cardinal Pell for his trust and support.

Last but not least I wish to especially thank all the catechists who have and continue to give their time so generously teaching our children in public schools the Catholic faith. Your love and generosity is one of the true treasures of the Church!

My prayer is that you all continue in good health and that a new CCD Director is appointed in good time to continue leading and supporting you in your great 'missionary' work.

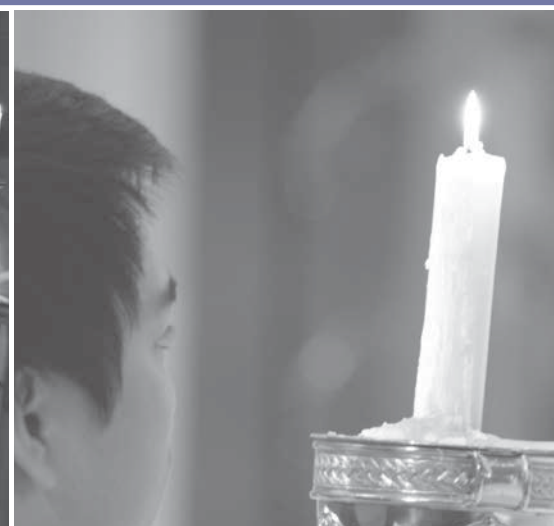

Thank you and God bless!

Robert Haddad

Great Reads for the Year of Faith

The Case for Christianity

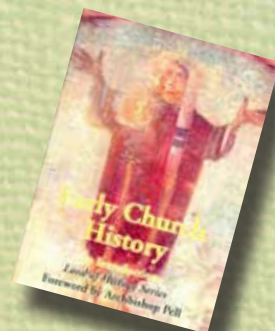

St Justin lived during times similar to our own in many ways. St Justin's arguments are, therefore, of a nature that can be appreciated by many a modern reader and should be of interest and relevance to Christians deprived of religious liberty today.
